

3. Mr. McManus, of the staff of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called to advise that they had received information that one [redacted] Miami Beach restaurant owner for 25 years, was on a trip abroad. According to Mr. McManus' information, [redacted] is allegedly quite close to [redacted] now in the United States, and was making this trip for [redacted]. It was further alleged that [redacted] had turned up in the Far East with large sums of money and a ticket that would take him to Tokyo, Karachi, Singapore, Hong Kong and Manila. Mr. McManus stated that he thought this information might be of interest to us and that if we unearthed anything of interest to the Committee he would appreciate being so informed. 24 Aug. 1955
